

UPS Management

BTMS provides detailed monitoring of UPS-connected battery strings by analyzing current, voltage, SOC, and SOH in real-time. The system supports isolation of failing strings and automated control responses, such as activating ventilation or issuing alarms. BM-SM and BM-GW facilitate integration with UPS controllers and SCADA systems for coordinated system-level visibility and diagnostics.