Server room equipment management

BM-MC manages equipment like gas detectors, fans, and disconnects using programmable logic. It supports direct control through digital I/Os and enables automated safety protocols based on environmental or system conditions.

Content in preparation. Please check back soon.