

CAMS IQ

CAMS (Common Area Management System) is a control system designed for the automation of common areas in hospitality projects. It encompasses the control of lighting (on/off, dimming, and shading), HVAC (heating, cooling, and ventilation), access control, and all other devices that benefit from integrated management.